CHRISTMAS PRESENTS—M. J. M'FADDEN.

—M'FADDEN'S SHIRT AND HAT STORE.—

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS!

THE most serious question before the people now, is What to Buy for Christmas Presents! If you have Christmas Presents to buy for men and boys, don't make the serious mistake of throwing your money away for some article that is of no earthly use to them, and which will be cast aside and forgotten. Why not give them as a present some useful article, and then have the pleasure of knowing that your gift is the proper thing, and given at the right time.

of the Republicans will be held in the Island hose house hall on Monday evening
next, instead of Saturday evening,
as originally intended.

Street Car Repairs.
Market street north from Twelfth and south from Fourteenth is now being torn up by the street railway company.
The preparatory to relaying the track.
Work all along the line is being hustled
day and night.

The Police Court Sustained.
In part I of the circuit court yesterday William McGlumphy failed to appear to prosecute his appeal from the police court, where he was fined $20 for disorderly conduct, and judgment was entered for the $20 fine, with the costs
in the police and also the costs in this court.

Cut in a Fight.
The Hobbs glass factory was the scene yesterday morning of a fight, one of the participants getting somewhat used up. Dan Hahne was struck by another glassworker with a long iron rod, inflicting a severe wound across the head. Dr. Pipes, who attended Hahne, took several stitches in the cut.

Transfers Recorded.
Clerk Hook yesterday admitted to record transfers of real estate as follows:
December 7, by Daniel Ritter to Charles G. O. Stein, for $1,500, and certain covenants, two half lots in Fulton.
November 23, by Charles Rader and wife to Robert A. Arrington and Robert Greenlee, for $2,200, part of lot 143, on Chapline street.

Reduction of Assessment Asked.
Messrs. C. R. Hubbard and George Wise, of Wheeling, representing the Benwood iron works, were before the county court of Marshall yesterday to petition for a reduction in the assessment of the company's property at Benwood. They ask this on the ground that the nail factory has been abandoned
and that the manufacture of nails
will not be resumed.

Pocket Picked in a Theatre.
A young lady from Moundsville who attended a matinee at the Grand Opera House lately, had the misfortune to have her pockets picked of money, railroad ticket, handkerchief, etc. She was fortunate enough to run across a friend,
from whom she borrowed enough money to get home. She says next time she will not become so interested in the play.

Funerals of Well Known Men.
The funeral of the late Henry Schultze,
a well known South Side citizen, will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock
from the residence of his son, A. J.
Schultze, on South Jacob street. The interment will be at Mt. Zion cemetery.
The funeral of Charles W. Cook, the Belmont mill naller who died Tuesday,
will take place to-morrow afternoon
from his residence on Twenty-fourth street, the interment being in Greenwood cemetery.

THE HUB—ONE-PRICE CLOTHIERS.

FOR THE Happy Holidays! USEFUL, PRACTICAL AND APPROPRIATE -Christmas Gifts- NOW DISPLAYED BY THE THOUSANDS AT -THE HUB- Boys' and Children's Clothing!

There has come to be a revolution in the buying of Christmas gifts. Trashy and useless articles are things of the past. The people have become sensible. They have learned to buy sensible gifts, such as they themselves like to receive. Something useful is nowadays preferred by everybody, and that for useful Christmas gifts THE HUB are headquarters is a universally recognized, settled and accepted fact. The earlier you make your purchases the better will be your selection. Thousands of dollars worth of useful presents have been opened out within the last few days. If you want a present for father, brother, husband, son or best fellow, then save time, money and vexation by going direct to headquarters.

OVERCOATS. FURNISHINGS.

MEN'S SUITS.—Our prices, low all the year around, are lowest now. Good Cassimere and Cheviot Suits, $8 and $10; elegant Dress Suits, single or double breasted sack or frock, latest patterns and colors, $12 and $15; finest Imported Dress Suits, as good as custom work, $18 and $20. Why not treat yourself to such a Christmas gift?

MEN'S OVERCOATS.—Hundreds of them in Kerseys, Meltons, Beavers, Worsteds, Cheviots, in any style or color. We can fit any form, big, little, long or stout, at prices that talk.

BOYS' SUITS AND OVERCOATS.—How much better than toys! Hundreds of Boys' Short and Long Pants Suits. Truly the grandest values ever offered.

WHITE SHIRTS.—Laundried and Unlaundried. Prices for a good Linen Bosom Shirt, 50c, 75c and $1 00, qualities generally found in shirts at 50c more. We handle more White Shirts than any business house in the city, because our prices are right.

MEN'S WORKING JACKETS.—A princely gift for father, husband or brother. A complete line, $5, $6 50, $8, $10 and $15.

MACKINTOSHES AND RUBBER COATS.—For rainy days. Nothing will please the one for whom you buy it more than one of our elegant Mackintoshes, as we have complete all sizes and prices.

MEN'S AND BOYS' HATS.—We have outdone ourselves in this line. Our Men's Fine Fur Stiff Hat at 98c can not be matched in the State at $1 50. Finer ones in proportion.

HANDKERCHIEFS.—Three hundred dozen Men's Linen and Silk Initialed Handkerchiefs. Something nice for a Christmas present. Nothing more useful.

NIGHT SHIRTS.—We're headquarters for Night Shirts, any style, any prices. See our window display. The prices are right.
